THE CHARGE OF LIFE

Is the most important period in a woman's existence. Owing to modern methods of living, no one woman in a thousand approaches this perfectly natural change without experiencing a train of very annoying and sometimes painful symptoms.

Those dreadful hot flashes, sending the blood surging to the heart until it seems ready to burst, and the faint feeling that follows, sometimes with chills, as if the heart were going to stop for good, are symptoms of a dangerous, nervous trouble. Those hot flashes, those dizzy spells, those nervous tremors, those aching limbs, those sleepless nights, those nervous headaches, those nervous palpitations, those nervous irritations, those nervous depressions, those nervous anxieties, those nervous fears, those nervous doubts, those nervous hesitations, those nervous regrets, those nervous sorrows, those nervous griefs, those nervous agonies, those nervous torments, those nervous agonies, those nervous torments, those nervous agonies, those nervous torments.

It builds up the weakened nervous system, and enables a woman to pass that grand change triumphantly.
